

Laurie Nicole Robinson, 34

My Occupation: Corporate lawyer

A Day in My Life: "My mornings usually begin with power breakfast meetings. During the day I interact with and advise key players in the legal and business arenas. In the evening I like to paint the town red with friends, be it dining out, attending Broadway productions, or viewing the latest exhibits at art museums."

My Style Philosophy: "I like stylish clothing that personifies confidence and charisma in a legal environment."

My Fashion Staple: A large bag that's spacious enough to keep me organized

“I love a coat that’s elegant and can work in various settings—client meetings, the courthouse, after-work functions.”

Bally coat. Alexis Bittar earrings. Lauren G. Adams two-toned antique rhodium-plated silver ring. Diesel pumps. For details, see Where to Buy.
