EXPERIENCE CCWC'S 18 YEARS OF UNIQUE PROGRAMMING, DIVERSITY AND FUN

In a Georgia state of mind, we are excited to invite you to the 18th Annual Corporate Counsel Women of Color and Hogan Lovells Career Strategies Conference, which will take place from October 5 – 8, 2022 at the Hyatt Regency Downtown Atlanta.

We have planned an incredible program which includes our signature and robust Wednesday seminars, presentations, and boot camps, including but not limited to:

- Chief Legal Officer Symposium
- Chief Diversity Officer Summit
- Chief Compliance Officer Track
- Privacy and Cybersecurity Track
- Board-Readiness Boot Camp
- MBA for Lawyers

Joining us in the Peach State is our powerful and star-studded lineup, which includes keynote speaker Christina Swarns (Executive Director, Innocence Project), who will receive CCWC's Diamond Award in commemoration of her career-long dedication to the cause of criminal justice reform.

In addition, we will have a fireside with Common (Oscar, Grammy, and Emmy-winning artist, actor, and activist), which will be followed by a performance of some of his greatest hits. Attendees can expect to be immersed in pearls of wisdom and shared lessons learned from Laila Ali (Hall of Fame Boxing Champion

From the Desk of Laurie N. Robinson Haden
President & CEO
Corporate Counsel
Women of Color

and lifestyle CEO) and Beverly Johnson (Founder, Chairwoman, and Chief Executive Officer of BJE LLC and World-Renowned Supermodel).

Other distinguished presenters and speakers include:

- Heba Hamouda – Chief Compliance Officer of Apple
- Judge Glenda Hatchett – TV host and founder of The Hatchett Firm
- Eric Liu – Founder, Citizen University
- Craig Robinson – Chief Diversity Officer of NBCUniversal.

Moreover, we are adding our inaugural Health and Wellness Fair, where we will offer mammograms and screenings for A1C, cholesterol and blood pressure testing.

Finally, we will paint the town red with fun events designed to foster networking in small groups including bowling, foodie tours, dine arounds, Porsche car drive experience, Topgolf, shopping in Buckhead, and visits to the Atlanta Zoo and The world Coca-Cola Tour. The event will end with our Power & Inspiration breakfast featuring Kierra Sheard-Kelly, Kurt Carr and The Kurt Carr Singers, and Vicki Yohe.

We look forward to seeing you all in Atlanta!

October 4, 2022

Greetings:

As the 61st Mayor of Atlanta, it is my pleasure to welcome attendees to the Corporate Counsel Women of Color (CCWC) and Hogan Lovells 18th Annual Career Strategies Conference.

Since its inception, CCWC has provided support and facilitated networking opportunities for women attorneys of color around the nation and abroad. It has also promoted career advancement and promoted all aspects of global diversity in the legal profession and workplace.

As the cradle of the Civil Rights Movement, Atlanta is proud to be a leader in the fight for diversity and inclusion in the corporate law field – specifically for women of color who face bias and other obstacles due to the intersectionality of their gender and race.

Nearly all people of color are underrepresented in the legal profession, and I commend CCWC for creating a space to elevate these important conversations and to remove barriers meant to keep women lawyers of color from achieving the success they deserve and success they have earned.

While you are visiting our world-class city, we hope you explore some of our incredible attractions. Consider spending time at the National Center for Civil and Human Rights, Centennial Olympic Park, the Georgia Aquarium, the World of Coca Cola, Atlanta Botanical Garden, and many more.

On behalf of the people of Atlanta, I extend best wishes for a memorable and successful conference.

Sincerely,

THE HONORABLE JUDGE ESTHER SALAS

U.S. DISTRICT COURT OF NEW JERSEY

Judge Esther Salas earned her J.D. from Rutgers School of Law-Newark. In 1997, Judge Salas joined the District of New Jersey's ("D.N.J.") Office of the Federal Public Defender. In 2006, Judge Salas became the first Hispanic Magistrate Judge for the D.N.J. After unanimous Senate confirmation in 2011, Judge Salas became the first Latina United States District Judge in the D.N.J. Judge Salas is the loving wife of Mark Anderl, and the proud mother of her late son, Daniel Mark Anderl, who offered his life as an act of love when a disgruntled lawyer targeted Judge Salas because of her federal judgeship. Since Daniel's senseless murder, Judge Salas's mission is to ensure greater protections for judges, which led to the passage of "Daniel's Law" in New Jersey. To ensure that Daniel's death will not be in vain, Judge Salas continues to advocate for federal legislation to ensure greater protections for federal judges.

LILLIAN S. HARDY

PARTNER
HOGAN LOVELLS

Strategically perceptive, Lillian S. Hardy founded Hogan Lovells' Crisis Leadership Practice after recognizing a market need for legal services that account for reputation management. Her practice focuses on controversies and investigations emanating from an array of incidents across all industries. She has a particular focus on Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA) investigations, cybersecurity and data privacy-related investigations, consumer protection investigations, and anything pertaining to fraud or misconduct. Recognized by Bloomberg Law, Global Investigation Review, National Law Journal, and others as a leader beyond her years, Hardy has managed incidents and investigations for clients across five continents and is sought out for representations where both government enforcement and threat of public "cancelation" loom large. Hardy is one of Hogan Lovells's most senior leaders and is a member of the Global Board of Directors and the Americas management team. She is a proud graduate of Spelman College and the UC Berkeley School of Law.

At Deloitte, we help clients turn business issues into opportunities to lead in their industries, navigate possibilities that others may fail to find, and disrupt through innovation.

Our team advises clients on ways to mitigate their reputational exposure to global corruption, financial crime, enterprise fraud, cybercrime, supply chain breakdowns, and other vulnerabilities.

About Deloitte

Deloitte refers to one or more of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Limited, a UK private company limited by guarantee ("DTTL"), its network of member firms, and their related entities. DTTL and each of its member firms are legally separate and independent entities. DTTL (also referred to as "Deloitte Global") does not provide services to clients. In the United States, Deloitte refers to one or more of the US member firms of DTTL, their related entities that operate using the "Deloitte" name in the United States and their respective affiliates. Certain services may not be available to attest clients under the rules and regulations of public accounting. Please see www.deloitte.com/about to learn more about our global network of member firms.

Diversity is part of how we work
