ELEVEN YEARS AND COUNTING

2015 marks Corporate Counsel Women of Color's (CCWC) eleventh year of fostering diversity in the legal profession!

Last year marked our 10th Anniversary Celebration. Over the decade, CCWC has expanded to an impressive 3,300 members around the globe and reaches over 8,000 diverse lawyers through our weekly listserv and through the CCWC website. I feel so proud seeing all of the successful and accomplished women who have advanced their careers in our profession with the support of CCWC. Our success is attributable to our committed members, friends, presenters, and sponsors who continue to rally behind our mission and vision to empower one another and help to build our pipeline of future lawyers.

As we enter our eleventh year, the need for CCWC is even greater today. In April and June, we will provide programming to law firm associates on how to succeed at a law firm and then head to Southern University Law Center where we will work with high school students around the country and provide them with an understanding of the legal profession, the law, and the judicial system. Finally, in September we will host our 11th Annual Career Strategies Conference in Atlanta, GA. September 23-25, 2015 at the Atlanta Downtown Marriott Marquis.

I look forward to 2015 and all the opportunities that await all of us. Cheers to the continued efforts to foster diversity in the law.

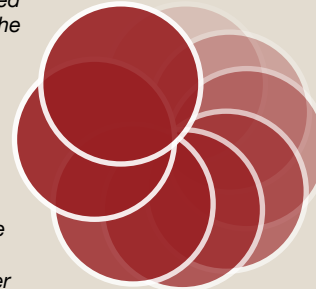

Laurie

SUM AND SUBSTANCE OF THE CCWC AND K&L GATES LLP TENTH ANNUAL CONFERENCE

2014 CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

Beverly Hills, California – Over 800 women of color attorneys – a record number – gathered in the City of Angels for the Corporate Counsel Women of Color (CCWC) and K&L Gates LLP Tenth Anniversary Celebration. The Annual Career Strategies Conference was held October 6-8, 2014 at the Beverly Hilton Hotel. Microsoft and Xbox kicked off the CCWC and K&L Gates LLP festivities at Circa 55 at the Beverly Hilton.

Over the three days, the schedule and program were packed with substance, information, inspiration, empowerment, and best practices. CCWC hosted its popular General Counsel Training Boot Camp and MBA In-a-Day, where attendees learned about cloud computing agreements, crisis management plans, managing data security breaches, executive presence, people management, and strategies in the boardroom. Other topics ranged from improv for lawyers to closing the gap for women of color in executive compensation.

Attendees were inspired by a special video presentation in memory of Professor Derrick A. Bell. The piece was produced by Lisa Boykin (Associate Principal Counsel, Disney) and Janet Bell (widow of Professor Bell). Attendees also heard from David Drummond (Chief Legal Officer, Google), Suzanne Rich Folsom (General Counsel, United States Steel Corporation), Ambassador Carol Moseley Braun (former U.S. Senator), Kimberley D. Harris (General Counsel, NBC Universal), Judge Glenda Hatchett (Judge Hatchett Show and Best-Selling Author), Gonzalo Smith (General Counsel, Walmart Latin America), and Tracy M. Preston (General Counsel, Neiman Marcus Group). Wendy Shiba (Retired General Counsel of KB Home and Diamond Award Honoree) received the tenth CCWC Diamond Award of Excellence and Dr. Beverly Tatum (President of Spelman College) was presented with the Corporate Counsel Women of Color Award.

On Friday, October 8, 2014, attendees heard a special presentation entitled A View From the Bench. The panel was moderated by Alfreda Bradley-Coar (General Counsel, GE Healthcare, U.S. and Canada) and featured shared insights of presenters the Honorable Ann Claire Williams (U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit), the Honorable Consuelo B. Marshall (United States District Court for the Central District of California), the Honorable Dolly M. Gee (United States District Judge, Central District of California), and the Honorable Jay C. Gandhi (United States Magistrate Judge, Central District of California).

Attendees participated in several post-conference activities which included an excursion at L.A. Live in Downtown Los Angeles, tours of the Hollywood stars' homes, tours of Universal and Warner Bros. movie studios, and visits to Bloomingdale's.

For the fifth time, CCWC hosted a special breakfast for those in the role of general counsel, deputy general counsel, chief compliance officer, chief of staff, and corporate secretary. Over seventy executives participated in this effective peer-to-peer event.

While in Los Angeles, CCWC members gave back to the community by visiting the Los Angeles Food Bank. They also visited Dorsey High School for My Life as a Lawyer, where they talked to students about careers at law firms and corporations. The conference concluded with a movie night, bowling, an evening of jazz, and a closing celebration at Maggiano's at the Grove.

Beverly Hills, CA – On October 6, 2015, over 500 in-house and law firm partners participated in CCWC's third annual General Counsel Training Boot Camp and MBA In-a-Day for Lawyers. The program covered an expansive array of topics which included updating cloud computing and social media agreements, boardroom management, improv for lawyers, executive presence, people management, and developing a crisis management plan. A special presentation entitled Closing the Gap for Women of Color in Executive Compensation addressed strategies to overcome pay disparities in corporate America and incorporated a live-audience salary survey component (the results are available on the CCWC website). MBA In-a-Day for Lawyers provided an intense full-day program of learning on advanced aspects of financial acumen including financial statements, valuation, and strategic considerations in buy/sell disputes. CCWC will offer Part IV of the program at its Eleventh Annual on September 23, 2015.

The 2015 S-Class.

128 years ago, the founder of Mercedes-Benz challenged his employees to deliver “the best or nothing.” The 2015 S-Class is proof that his words still resonate to this day. Building on its own history of innovation, the groundbreaking S-Class features dual 12.3" high-resolution screens, hot stone massage seating and an aromatic filtration system on the inside, while outside, a revolutionary MAGIC BODY CONTROL system uses cameras to scan the road for imperfections and instantly adjust the suspension for a superior ride. The 2015 S-Class is the flagship Mercedes-Benz that not only makes a statement, but answers a calling.
