Last but not least, our conference will end Saturday, September 28, 2019, with our second Power and Inspiration Farewell Gospel Breakfast featuring gospel Grammy Award-winning recording artist CeCe Winans.

We have great Windy City excursions planned including Evening Out at Tao, Chicago Architecture Boat Ride, Chicago Pizza Tour, Evening Boat Ride, Navy Pier and a new musical, Miracle, which is set against the backdrop of the Chicago Cubs' 2016 Championship season.

This past June, we held our second annual Corporate Counsel Men of Color Career | Life Strategies and Power Networking Conference at the Marriott Marquis Convention Center in Washington, D.C. on June 6-7, 2019. Over 600 men of color attendees from multiple industries (including law, STEM, government, education, and finance) gathered in our nation's capital to discuss best practices and strategies for ascending to the top in their careers and in their lives. Keynote speakers included Coach Herm Edwards and John Quiñones of ABC's "What Would You Do?" Next year, we will embark on a multi-city Listening Tour to discuss Part II of the Men of Color Survey.

The CCWC looks forward to seeing all of you at the end of September. Enjoy reviewing the Pre-Conference Magazine. A full list of sponsor ads and speaker bios will be available in the Program Book this fall.

PERFORMER

CECE WINANS

POWER & INSPIRATION ARTIST

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 2019

The eighth of ten siblings in the revered Detroit-based Winans family, CeCe Winans (born Priscilla) is a Grammy Award-winning and prominent contemporary gospel artist through performances and recordings with brother BeBe. As a duo, BeBe and CeCe proved to be the most commercially successful of the numerous Winans groupings. Their biggest album, Different Lifestyles (1991), topped Billboard's gospel and R&B/hip-hop charts, went platinum, and won a Grammy. Two of its singles, "Addictive Love" and the Staple Singers cover "I'll Take You There" (featuring Mavis Staples), also topped multiple Billboard genre charts. Shortly thereafter, CeCe began her solo career. Alone in His Presence (1995) found her working her way back to traditional gospel, singing standards like "Great Is Thy Faithfulness," "Blessed Assurance," and "I Surrender All." Everlasting Love (1998), His Gift (also 1998), and Alabaster Box (1999) cemented the singer's status as a top-tier gospel artist. CeCe entered the following decade with a self-titled album (2001) that concentrated on the adult contemporary and R&B markets. Beginning with Throne Room (2003), CeCe focused on worship-oriented albums released through a joint venture between her Pure Springs Gospel label and Epic. Other hit albums include Purified (2005), Thy Kingdom Come (2008), Still (2009), and Songs of Emotional Healing (2010). we come from,
we come together.

While each one of us is an original, we all have something in common: we all want to belong. So we strive to invite different perspectives to drive our innovation and different stories to build our culture. When we do, we end up in a place we all want to be.

See what we're made of.

Energy lives here™

OUR PERSPECTIVE IS THAT DIFFERENT PERSPECTIVES MATTER.

Our patients face formidable hardships. And finding the treatments they need starts with seeing the problem from every vantage point. That's why diversity isn't just a corporate policy for us. It's about more than race, creed or color. It's about the unique insights we need to change patients' lives. So if you want to help, we're hiring!
